

Port Entry List and Regulations as at 18.05.2020

Countries	Port entry	Quarantine	Regulations
Belgium	Open to one household	N/A	A family can drive a boat (on sea) (one household) but on inland waterways locks and bridges not operated for pleasure crafts. So practically only for short distance or on sea. Watersports possible but only members of the same house on board. But progress expected soon.
Bulgaria	Open	14 days	In case as per the registry certificate the type is "pleasure craft/yacht" then all the people on board are considered as tourists/passengers, including the crew. In this case it is up to the citizenship of every person concerning the visa. In case in the registry certificate, the type is passenger ship then the crew need the seaman's passports only to go ashore not depending on the nationality. People inserted in the passenger list will be treated as passengers and for them the general rules for visa will apply. Visas/in case needed could not be issued on arrival. We expect to enter the Schengen zone soon and for that reason visas on arrival are cancelled temporarily. Nationalities for which a visa is needed (China, India, Philippines, etc.. should obtain it prior arrival at any BG consulate. In case the people possess Schengen visas then no issues as schengen visas are fully acceptable in Bulgaria.
Croatia	Open	No	Croatia is open to foreign yacht owners, crew members, and charter guests (for yachts over 24m) with no quarantine needed. Guests can arrive: they do not need to have fresh Anti Covid test but it is recommended for crew safety. Guests will need to have proof that they own the yachts in Croatia, Ship registry is ok if the yacht is under the name and surname. If the yacht is under a company name, customs will need the connection between the company and the private person. For yacht guests, the invitation from the owner will be needed. There is no limitation of number of guests, so if they yacht can take 12 guests, it is possible. Guests will need to follow social distancing and anti-COVID recommendations that are in place.

Spain	Closed - only allowed for recreational sailing	Yes	Spain is still in phase 1 phase 2 should start on 25/05. From May 15th until the end of the Spanish Alarm State (estimated finishing date June 22nd), a quarantine of 14 days is compulsory for all arrivals from outside Spain, including returning nationals and permanent residents. During this quarantine period, the use of face mask is compulsory when going out and people will have to limit their movements to food acquisition pharmaceuticals, basic necessities, assistance to health centers, for force majeure or need reasons. The only exceptions are cross-border workers, carriers and crew. N.B: Crew arriving from outside Spain must serve 14 days of quarantine. This can be done on board, but it has to be confirmed by the captain or vessel's management. Any arrival, by air or sea, she/he has to provide a proof of address/berth where they'll quarantine. Charters are still not allowed in Spain at the moment due to the restrictions in place, Ports are still closed, only few exceptions for yachts use only for residents or Spanish citizens and with limitation on municipality.
Sweden	Closed	N/A	Regarding access to Swedish waters, port calls and going ashore in Sweden all is open for EU citizens. Non EU citizens are able to call Swedish ports but are not allowed to go ashore if not crew and should sign off (we need to seek permission from Immigration, emergency visa in that case) All vessels can call Swedish ports, but only EU citizens can go ashore. This is valid until 15th May but can be extended, have been extended once. Will let you know soonest any changes.
The Netherlands	Open	Awaiting information.	EU citizens are allowed to travel at any time and can stay at a hotel awaiting vessels arrival or wait at a hotel until their flight is available. Non EU citizens: of course those countries who should have a Schengen-visa require a visa when passing borders. The immigration prefers they take the shortest route from the airport to the vessel or vice versa. However, they also understand that it is not always possible. If that is the case, if a joiner arrives in the afternoon and the vessel berths the next day, this can be discussed with immigration and if authorised, it is possible to book a hotel for the night. This will be the same for the other way around, an off-signer is permitted to spend the night at a hotel if the flight departs the next day provided he/she can show the flight details. Immigration will likely cooperate in such cases.

United States	Depending on state	American Airlines will resume some service to the Caribbean islands from June 4th. The French Caribbean islands, St Barths, St. Martin, Guadeloupe, Martinique and Saba have started the reopening process. Florida Gov. Ron DeSantis has agreed to let Palm Beach County begin its reopening starting on Monday. That means restaurants can open to 25% capacity plus outside seating, and hair salons and other personal care businesses can reopen using distancing guidelines and protective measures. Bars, gyms and beaches remain closed. Broward County, which includes Fort Lauderdale, and Miami-Dade County remain closed down except for essential businesses. In the press conference yesterday, Gov. DeSantis said they might begin reopening by May 18. Palm Beach County beaches likely will reopen on May 18, county Mayor Dave Kerner said during the press conference. CBP Boston temporarily closes small boat reporting locations U.S. Customs and Border Protection's field office in Boston has temporarily closed small boat reporting locations throughout New England. According to a CBP statement, "We are assisting the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services in implementing [its] authority under Title 42, U.S. Code 265, in accordance with existing Title 8 authority and prohibiting the entry of certain persons into the United States." The CBP statement was released April 27. On April 22, U.S. President Donald Trump signed an executive order that bars some immigration into the United States for 60 days. According to the CBP Boston field office, "Effective immediately, small boating locations are temporarily closed for all CBP private vessel processing, including the use of ROAM until further notice." The statement also "reminds travelers that routine private vessel travel for pleasure is non-essential."
