Countries	Last updated	Port entry	Quarantine	Regulations
Belgium	22.06.2020	Open	No	Vessels are permitted alongside. Special arrival requirements depend on the terminal. Some require a statement from the Master about health of all crew members. If crew are not EU citizen/resident, no crew change is allowed. Crew can go ashore but are not allowed to be with more than 2 persons at a time. 3 persons is a group and is not allowed. No visas will be issued until further notice. Situation in Belgium is +/- more to business as usual and borders for boats ex Schengen countries (not UK) are allowed and possible. Marinas are open, waterways and harbour are working.
Croatia	06.07.2020	Open	Yes	Croatia is open to all EU members. Non EU member states: owners and family members need only proof of yacht ownership and charterers need only proof of the charter i.e. a copy of our official E-Crew list and they are welcome in with no quarantining at all. Advisable for all travelers to fill this online form out prior to travel to expedite procedures at the border https://entercroatia.mup.hr/Edit
Cyprus	06.07.2020	Open	Depending on provenance (see notes)	Able to accept international arrivals but currently all crew/passengers must remain onboard under quarantine. From 'non-approved' countries, control measures remain and are believed to be a 14- day quarantine, a requirement to present a recent (just before departure) negative covid-19 test, or a test to be taken upon arrival with disembarkation allowed after receipt of a negative result. All yacht are now allowed in but they are sorted in 3 categories: Category A: No restriction - normal arrival procedures. Category B: Test on arrival, normal procedures after negative results received. Quarantine until test results are completed (max 24 hours). Category C: 14 days quarantine (including passage time from last port of call). Test on final quarantine day and normal procedures thereafter. The most important in countries from category C since now the days taken from origin to final Cyprus count as days of isolation as long as they do not stop on the way. Maximum 24 hours for release of crew if all found negative.

Denmark	06.07.2020	Open	See notes	3rd countries nationalities: Except for Danish citizens, all borders are closed and restrictions have been extended to the 31st of August. In theory, the ports in Denmark are still open for commercial yachts but guests from 3rd country nationalities are not allowed to step ashore. Whether the yacht has guests, crew doesn't have permission to go ashore. Crew changes can happen subject to approval. EU citizens and UK: Except nationalities from Sweden and Portugal, all other EU and UK nationalities are allowed to enter the Danish borders if there is proof of 6 nights' accommodation. Irrespective of nationalities, crew still do not have permission to go ashore. Crew changes can happen subject to approval. Citizens and nationalities of Slesvig, Holstein and Germany: Except for the mandatory 6 night accommodation, these restrictions are the same as for the EU. Irrespective of nationalities, crew are still not allowed to go ashore. Crew changes can be performed subject to approval. General restrictions: If the yacht carries more than 12 guests on board a private or charter yacht, a special permission is required from immigration which generally requires 3 weeks. Denmark follows the EU regulations in regards to VAT applicable for charter boats. If a charter starts/end in Denmark, the charter will be subject to Danish VAT. All services including port services will be subject to Vat of 25%

Estonia will admit people with no symptoms arriving from the European Union, the members of the Schengen area or the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland. The compulsory quarantine for people arriving in Estonia depends on whether the relative coronavirus infection rate in their country of origin is above 15. At present these countries are: Sweden, Portugal, UK, Romania, Poland and Bulgaria.
Finland	29.06.2020	Open to EU citizens	Depending on country of origin	Restrictions on travel and tourism to be further lifted The Government agreed that as of 13 July, it would lift the internal border control and restrictions on traffic between Finland and countries where the incidence of COVID-19 is similar to that in countries where internal border control has already been lifted. These countries are Norway, Denmark, Iceland and the Baltic countries. At present, the limit value is a maximum of eight new cases of the disease per 100,000 persons in the previous 14 days. Based on the current development of the epidemic, internal border control could therefore be lifted for the following Schengen countries: Germany, Italy, Austria, Greece, Switzerland, Slovakia, Slovenia, Hungary and Liechtenstein. In addition, travel to Finland from Croatia, Cyprus and Ireland, which are EU Member States but not part of the Schengen area, would be allowed. However, the Government will continue to assess the overall situation in the Schengen area and the EU Member States until 10 July and will update the list of countries based on the development of the epidemic at that time.

Orkey ports: Kirkwall, Stromness, North Ronaldsay	29.06.2020	Officially we are still open to cruise ships calling although all vessels will be treated on a case by case basis with final decision being made by port health and other public health bodies. Obviously being a remote location with limited NHS resources would mean that in the current lockdown as proscribed by Uk / Scottish Governments it would be unlikely that we would accept a large amount of extra people onto the island until we have at least moved out of this stage of restrictions. We have no cruise calls expected until early May now as lines have suspended their operations but we expect to assist the cruise lines as much as possible as they start their operations again. Similarly we are open to cruise liners wanting lay ups although again this will be taken on a case by case basis as mentioned above
